Instructor

Steven Ganzberg, D.M.D., M.S.

Dr. Ganzberg, Clinical Professor of Anesthesiology at the UCLA School of Dentistry, is a dentist anesthesiologist with over 25 years experience in acute and chronic pain management. After graduating from Penn Dental School in 1981, Dr. Ganzberg was dual trained in Anesthesiology and Orofacial Pain with board certifications in both fields. He taught and later directed the Dental Anesthesiology Residency at Ohio State for 17 years before coming to UCLA. Dr. Ganzberg is a past president of the American Society of Dentist Anesthesiologists and the American Dental Board of Anesthesiology. Currently, he provides anesthesia for dento-alveolar, maxillofacial and facial plastic surgery. He has published over 50 original research articles and book chapters in the field.

Most states require a current Basic Life Support or Advanced Cardiac Life Support certification, in addition to this C.E. course prior to renewing your IV Moderate Sedation license.

Who may we thank for referring you?
